Pairing the N700m to your device:

1. Make sure your phone is not currently connected to another Bluetooth device
2. With the N700m off, press and hold the Bluetooth button until the indicator light flashes red and blue
3. Using your device, begin searching for nearby Bluetooth devices
4. Simply connect to the N700m when it has been found
5. Use 0000 for PIN if prompted (depending on the device)

Using Multipoint:

To utilize the Multipoint capability of your N700m, simply connect to a second phone repeating the above steps.

When using the headset's functions, your connected devices will prompt to determine which one is to be used as the active Bluetooth connection.

Using the N700m for the first time:

Before the first use, charge the N700m for at least 4 hours, preferably longer. We recommend letting it charge overnight.

When using it, adjust the headband for comfort. The 360-degree microphone swivel allows you to wear the N700m on whichever side you prefer. The sturdy microphone can be adjusted to your preferred position.
